

Reading ISAT: Literal Comprehension

Skills: Determine Main Idea and Identify Details

Students:

RIT Above 230:

- Analyzes major themes in American literature used to make connections across literary works and genres
- Analyzes theme within literary text

Students:

RIT 221-230:

- Analyzes text to identify the theme (main idea) of a literary text
- Analyzes major themes in American literature used to make connections across literary works and genres
- Analyzes theme within literary text
- Evaluates informational text to identify a title representing the main idea
- Discerns the main idea of informational texts based on supporting details

Students:

RIT 211-220:

- Analyzes literary text using supporting details
- Analyzes text to identify the theme (main idea) of a literary text
- Analyzes informational text to identify a title representing the main idea
- Assesses the main idea of informational texts based on supporting details

Students:

RIT 201-210:

- Analyzes literary text using supporting details
- Analyzes text to identify the theme (main idea) of a literary text
- Analyzes informational text to identify a title representing the main idea
- Assesses the main idea of informational texts based on supporting details

Students:

RIT 191-200:

- Analyzes text to identify main idea or theme of a literary text
- Analyzes literary text to identify a title representing the main idea
- Draws conclusions in literary text based upon supporting details
- Interprets informational text to identify a title representing the main idea
- Interprets the main idea of informational texts based on supporting details

Students:

RIT 181-190:

- Analyzes literary text to identify a title representing the main idea
- Analyzes text to identify main idea or theme of a literary text
- Analyzes literary text to identify a title representing the main idea
- Draws conclusions in literary text based upon supporting details
- Interprets the main idea of informational texts based on supporting details

Students:

RIT 171-180:

- Analyzes text to identify main idea in literary text
- Analyzes literary text to identify a title representing the main idea
- Determines the main idea of informational texts based on supporting details
- Examines informational text to identify a title representing the main idea

Students:

RIT 161-170:

- Analyzes text to identify main idea in literary text
- Draws conclusions based upon the supporting details in literary text
- Examines informational text to identify a title representing the main idea

Students:

RIT Below 161:

- Examines informational text to identify a title representing the main idea