

WRITING

ISAT Goal: Writing Process

Subskill: Use Pre-Writing Skills

RIT 221-230:

- Select words based on main topic; Outline a complex topic selection; Choose appropriate words for a selection; Evaluate possible point of views (i.e. personification); Choose vivid descriptors; Select method for brainstorming

RIT 211-220:

- Create comprehensive outlines; Use compound sentence selection; Outline verbiage for imaginative stories; Categorize using main topic as guideline

RIT 201-210:

- Choose formal or informal language; Select purpose of paragraph; Choose syntax that illustrates point of view; Outline expository mode

RIT 191-200:

- Select point of view (i.e. I, He, You); Choose a mode of writing; Use clear descriptors; List details in outline form; Determine tone and mood; Choose tone by determined audience; Outline main topic with descriptors; Organize sentences for paragraphs; Create a list of possible word choices; Select main headings for outline; Choose subject and brainstorm (i.e. word lists, webbing, free writing)

RIT 181-190:

- Create a simple outline; Write in a selected genre (i.e. a simple fairy tale); Create starter sentences; Categorize around a main topic; Select appropriate sentences for topic; List sentence details; Pre-write sentences that convey purpose of topic

RIT 171-180:

- Choose main topic; Select purpose of writing; Recognize genre; Determine audience

RIT 161-170:

- Use short complete sentences; Identify a brainstormed single word list about a given topic

RIT 151-160:

- No skills listed

RIT Below 150:

- No skills listed