

WRITING

ISAT Goal: Composition and Structure

Subskill: Use Appropriate Style & Vocabulary

RIT 221-230:

- No skills listed

RIT 211-220:

- Choose best opening paragraph in a narrative piece of writing; Use of vocabulary of declarative, imperative, interrogative and exclamatory terms

RIT 201-210:

- Focus on exclamatory sentence structure; Choose the best definition for the term "topic sentence"

RIT 191-200:

- Use strong topic sentences; Plan for strong conclusions; When given a 5-8 sentence paragraph, edit for off-topic sentences; When reading a short story choose the best ending; Choose the correct paragraph that best explains an action; Focus on imperative sentence structure; Answer standard questions when writing a news story

RIT 181-190:

- When given a 4-6 sentence paragraph, choose the off-topic sentence; When given a series of short sentences, choose the group that iterates one idea

RIT 171-180:

- Identify topic sentence; Identify correct paragraph; Given four sentences choose the one that does not belong; Choose a sentence to add to the paragraph that is on-topic; Use strong concluding sentences; When given four simple sentences choose the best sentence order; Choose the first sentence for the paragraph; Use strong topic sentences; Use correct greetings in a friendly letter; Use correct format for business letters; Use correct capitalization in greetings and closures

RIT 161-170:

- Identify off-topic sentences; Choose specific phrases to finish sentence

RIT 151-160:

- No skills listed

RIT Below 150:

- No skills listed