

WRITING

ISAT Goal: Grammar and Usage

Subskill: Subject-Verb Agreement

RIT Above 221:

- Recognize the correct use of subjects or verbs in the following cases: (a) Complex subject (“one of the __s”, “all of the __s”) – linking verb, (b) “There” – linking verb – plural noun, (c) Indefinite pronoun – linking verb

RIT 211-220:

- Recognize the correct use of subjects or verbs in the following cases: (a) First person singular subject – main verb, (b) Identify a singular subject by recognizing form of the verb in the predicate

RIT 201-210:

- Recognize the correct use of subjects or verbs in the following cases: (a) Singular subject – linking verb, (b) Singular subject – main verb, (c) Plural subject – linking verb, (d) Plural subject – auxiliary verb

RIT 191-200:

- Recognize the correct use of subjects or verbs in the following cases: (a) Compound subject – linking verb, (b) Compound subject – verb phrase, (c) Third person singular subject – main verb, (d) Plural subject – auxiliary verb or verb phrase

RIT 181-190:

- Identify the subject and predicate of a sentence; Recognize word order necessary to form a complete sentence; Recognize the correct use of subjects or verbs in the following cases: (a) Singular or plural subject - verb phrase, (b) Compound subject or third person plural subject - linking verb or present participle, (c) Third person singular subject - auxiliary verb, (d) Third person singular or plural subject – main verb, (e) First person plural subject – main verb

RIT 171-180:

- Recognize the correct use of subjects or verbs in the following cases: (a) Third person subject - linking verb, (b) Singular subject - verb phrase, (c) Third person plural and second person singular - correct present participle to use as the first word in a question

RIT 161-170:

- Recognize the correct use of subjects or verbs in the following cases: (a) Third person singular or plural subject - present participle, (b) Second person singular subject - present participle to use as first word in a question, (c) Subject-verb agreement in a short simple sentence

RIT 151-160:

- No skills listed

RIT Below 150:

- No skills listed