

WRITING

ISAT Goal: Punctuation

Subskill: Use Commas

RIT 221-230:

- Use commas to separate adverbial introductory clauses in a complex sentence

RIT 211-220:

- Use commas in a direct quotation; Use commas around non-essential phrases

RIT 201-210:

- Use commas after a direct address in an imperative sentence; Use commas after participial phrases in a lengthy paragraph; Use commas in non-essential parenthetical phrases; Use commas around interrupting phrases contained within the sentence

RIT 191-200:

- Use commas around parenthetical phrases

RIT 181-190:

- Use commas in personal greetings, Use commas in introductory words, (i.e. well, no, sorry); Use commas between two main clauses; Use commas after introductory clauses; Use commas after introductory adverbial clauses; Use commas in a letter closing; Use commas after direct address; Use commas between city and state

RIT 171-180:

- Use commas in a series

RIT 161-170:

- Correctly place commas in the date

RIT 151-160:

- No skills listed

RIT Below 150:

- No skills listed