

WRITING

ISAT Goal: Grammar and Usage

Subskill: Use Irregular Verb Forms

RIT 221-230:

- Determine which verb to use in a sentence with or without an auxiliary verb; Identify correct form of less commonly used irregular verbs

RIT 211-220:

- Identify troublesome irregular verbs (lie/lay, sit/set, etc.)

RIT 201-210:

- Format: Difficulty of vocabulary increases in this RIT range; Determine which verb to use in sentences with or without auxiliary verbs

RIT 191-200:

- Identify common irregular past tense forms of verbs; Recognize more difficult irregular verb forms; Recognize or determine the correct use of irregular past tense verbs

RIT 181-190:

- Determine which verb to use in a sentence; Determine which verb phrase to use in a sentence; Determine which verb to use in a sentence that has an auxiliary verb; Identify the past tense of an irregular verb

RIT 171-180:

- Format: Single word verbs only in this RIT range; Determine the correct verb form to use in a sentence (range of difficulty from come/came to catch/caught); Determine the correct verb forms to use in a compound or complex sentence

RIT 161-170:

- Determine the correct common irregular verb form to use in a short, simple sentence

RIT 151-160:

- No skills listed

RIT Below 150:

- No skills listed