

WRITING

ISAT Goal: Grammar and Usage

Subskill: Use Noun Forms

RIT 231-240:

- Recognize the correct plural spelling of a noun ending in “y” when just an ‘s’ is added; Recognize the correct plural forms of irregular and not frequently used plurals

RIT 221-230:

- Understand the meaning of a plural possessive noun; Recognize the correct possessive form of a word; Distinguish a possessive noun from a plural noun or a noun used as a contraction with ‘s for “is”; Recognize the correct irregular plural form of nouns not commonly used (Latin roots like data-datum; open compounds like lady in waiting); Distinguish irregular plurals from words that are not plural

RIT 211-220:

- Recognize which is not a correct irregular plural noun; Identify a plural possessive noun; Distinguish plural nouns from singular collective nouns, nouns that end in ‘s’, and possessive nouns; Identify a noun that is an idea or a feeling, not just a person, place, or thing

RIT 201-210:

- Recognize the correct plural form of a noun; Understand the meaning of a singular possessive noun; Recognize the correct irregular plural form of a noun; Identify which word is not a plural noun; Recognize the correct use of a plural noun in a sentence; Distinguish possessive nouns from contractions; Recognize a collective noun as being singular, distinguishing it from plural nouns

RIT 191-200:

- Identify a word as a noun; Identify which is the noun in a sentence; Recognize the correct plural form of a noun used in a sentence; Recognize plural nouns needing the –es ending; Recognize a noun that is not plural; Recognize the irregular plural form of a noun; Identify which is not a correct irregular plural noun; Recognize the correct use of a singular possessive noun

RIT 181-190:

- Recognize a regular plural noun used in a sentence; Recognize an irregular plural noun used in a sentence; Recognize the irregular plural form of a noun; Recognize the correct plural spelling of a noun ending in “y”

RIT 171-180:

- Recognize the regular plural form of a noun; Recognize simple irregular plural nouns; Recognize regular plural nouns needing –es ending; Recognize the correct use of a singular possessive noun; Identify a noun

RIT 161-170:

- Recognize the regular plural form of a noun (add s); Recognize simple irregular plural nouns; Recognize that a noun is to be used as a direct object

RIT 151-160:

- No skills listed

RIT Below 150:

- No skills listed