

WRITING

ISAT Goal: Grammar and Usage

Subskill: Use Verb Tense

RIT 221-230:

- Recognize sentences in which the subject of the sentence is the “doer” of the action

RIT 211-220:

- Determine the correct verb form to use in a sentence; Identify the verb form not used correctly in a sentence; Recognize verbs that have the same form for both present and past tense; Understand that there are names for various parts of speech; identify which word in a sentence is the verb; Determine which verb to use in a sentence in which the auxiliary verb is separated from the main verb; Understand the meaning of a complex verb phrase; Determine which verb form is correctly used in a complex sentence

RIT 201-210:

- Understand the tense and meaning of verbs, replace with similar verbs of the same tense and meaning; Determine the correct verb tense to use in a sentence; Determine the correct verb form to use in a sentence: irregular verbs, verbs used with auxiliary verbs; Identify present tense verbs; Determine the correct verb phrase to use in a sentence

RIT 191-200:

- Identify the past tense of a verb; Determine which verb to use in a question that has an auxiliary verb at the beginning of the sentence; Recognize or determine the correct use of regular past tense verbs; Determine the correct verb to use in a sentence with auxiliary verbs; Tell the meaning of “past tense of a verb”; Determine the correct verb to use to tell future actions

RIT 181-190:

- Recognize a sentence that tells past action or events; Identify the correct past tense form of common irregular verbs; Recognize or determine the correct use of common irregular past tense verbs; Recognize or determine the correct use of past tense helping or auxiliary verbs; Determine the correct use of a verb phrase; Recognize the correct use of gerunds; Recognize the correct use of regular past tense verbs; Determine the correct verb tense to use in a sentence; Recognize or determine the correct use of future tense verbs and verb phrases; Identify which word is a verb

RIT 171-180:

- Recognize the correct use of present tense verbs (will ____); Recognize the correct use of common irregular past tense verbs; Recognize past tense verbs used correctly in sentences; Recognize the correct use of present progressive verbs (is ___ing); Determine the correct verb form to use in a sentence; Distinguish which sentence tells past tense; Recognize the correct use of a past tense helping or auxiliary verb; Identify the correct irregular past tense form of a verb

RIT 161-170:

- Recognize the correct use of past tense verbs (add -ed); Recognize the correct use of past progressive (was ___ing); Recognize the correct use of common irregular past tense verbs

RIT 151-160:

- No skills listed

RIT Below 150:

- No skills listed